Revelation 20, 21 and 22

1. Warren Wiersbe mentions the word "utopia," in his commentary on Revelation 20:1-6, in conjunction with the millennial reign of Christ. Describe a world that would, to you, be a utopia. What is your reaction to the fact that even in a perfect environment, not everyone will honor God?

Quote from Pastor Neil from the following week: "A perfect environment cannot produce a perfect heart."

2. Revelation 20:6 reads that after the first resurrection, those who belong to Christ "will be priests of God and of Christ and will reign with Him for a thousand years." In light of this coming age, what should our priorities and goals look like, as Christ lives in us now?
3. Most of us have had at least one experience where we especially felt the presence of God. Describe what it would be like to live in a place described in Revelation 21 by the words, "God's home is now among His people! He will live with them, and they will be His people. God Himself will be with them."

Are the things Jesus revealed about Himself in the book of Revelation literal or symbolic? Explain your answer.

4. What four steps did Pastor Neil suggest as our response to Revelation 22? How will you apply them in your daily walk with Jesus?
5. What did Jesus reveal to you about himself through our study through the book of Revelation?
